

Summer Schedule ~ Bernardston UUs

In the Historic 1739 Bernardston Unitarian Meetinghouse

4 Summer Services ~ Coffee Hour at 11am, Service at 11:30am

Sunday, July 16th Rev. Steve Wilson: Living A Life of Meaning.

Built upon my own experiences of balancing comfort and calling, negotiating pride and humility, finding a balance of tradition and adventure, and mind and heart this Sunday we touch the challenge that living simply brings. Today we are offered an opportunity to examine where our comforts and routine play against the balance and challenge presented by the spiritual path.

Sunday, July 30th Rev. Steve Wilson: Humanism-

Humanist Manifesto Back in the Day, think, a few brave souls who had had enough of false church piety, who knew you could be ethical without being sacramental, sat and signed "the humanist manifesto" a document that declared not that God was dead, but perhaps a touch more unreliable than a human trained on the good. Many of them were Unitarians. (Rev. Steve's last service until his return engagement on January 7th.) We are honoring Steve with a pancake breakfast before the service on July 30th, 9:30am, $5 contribution requested.

Sunday, August 13th Dan Tinen: "Through the Eye of a Needle: Spiritual Economics"
